

Plants along Mitchell Canyon

May 3, 1978

* plant usually common on burns

- ① { Stylomecon heterophyllum (wind poppy)
Phacelia distans (?) white flowers
Allium unifolium (pink onion with spreading umbel)
Calochortus pulchellus (globe lily - very common)
*Eucrypta chrysanthemifolia (Hydrophyllaceae)
Delphinium decorum (larkspur)
Allium serratum (pink onion with crowded umbel)
*Camissonia micrantha var. jonesii (small evening primrose)
*Thelypodium lasiophyllum (cruciferae)
* Funaria sp. (moss)
*Papaver californicum (fire poppy)
*Githopsis specularioides (Campanulaceae)
*Daucus pusillus (wild carrot)
*Filago californica (California cotton rose - compositae)
*Gilia gilioides (both blue and rose corollas growing side by side)
*Stipa lepida (foothill needlegrass)
*Apiastrum angustifolium (mock parsley)
*Melica californica (California melicgrass) als. Melica torreyana
Layia gaillardiioides (Compositae)
Helianthella castanea (Mt. Diablo sunflower)
*Streptanthus hispida (rare jewel flower)
③ { *Festuca octoflora (six-weeks fescue- dwarf height)
*Gilia peduncularis (common)
Montia spathulata
Poa howellii (?)
④ { Ptelea trifoliata (hoptree)
Senecio aronicoides (tall, rayless comp with crowded heads)
Senecio breweri (tall comp with rays and dissected lvs)
Viola purpurea
Ribes menziesii var. hystriaculum (canyon gooseberry)
Sedella (Parvisedum) pentandra (Crassulaceae - rare)
Montia exigua (showy candy-cane pink striped fls) [sic] - gypsophilioides
*Phacelia breweri (small blue fls, dissected lvs)

SERPENTINE BURN

- ⑤ { *Calystegia malacophyllum (= Convolvulus) (wooly morning glory) common
Calandrinia sp. (?) (red maids)
Phacelia divaricata (large blue fls, entire round lvs, rare)